About the Organizer	The Academy for International Business Officials (AIBO) is an educational and training institution directly under the Ministry of Commerce of the People's Republic of China. Established in 1980, AIBO is located in Changping District, Beijing, about 30 kilometers from Beijing Capital International Airport. It boasts comprehensive infrastructure to provide services such as accommodation, catering, training and meetings for trainees. One of the main responsibilities of AIBO is to implement human resources development and cooperation projects, especially training courses for officials. The Academy serves as the main base for China's foreign aid training, offering both off-line and on-line training in China and overseas. Backed by the Ministry of Commerce and in close cooperation with China's top think tanks, research institutes and universities, AIBO brings together a large number of China's top experts and scholars to provide intellectual support for foreign aid training. It has developed a number of high-quality foreign aid training projects in the fields of trade and investment, international economic cooperation, governance and public management, which have proved to be fruitful. Since 1998, AIBO has successfully held over 2,000 training sessions for officials from developing countries (including 131 ministerial seminars), benefiting nearly 70,000 trainees from other developing countries around the world. AIBO will adhere to the guidance of Xi Jinping Thought on Socialism with Chinese Characteristics for a New Era, and take the important concepts, including a community with a shared future for mankind, pursuing the greater good and shared interests, and sincerity, real results, amity, good faith, mutual benefit and inclusiveness, as strategic guidance and fundamental principles to be followed. It will facilitate the joint efforts in implementing major initiatives such as the Belt and Road Initiative (BRI) and the Global Development Initiative (GDI), and continue to help developing countries accelerate their development by sharing China's experience and programs.
About the Project	Background: Green development is a development that follows the laws of nature to promote harmonious coexistence between humanity and nature, a development that obtains the maximum social and economic benefits at minimum cost in resources and environmental impact, and sustainable and high-quality development that protects the eco-environment. It has become the goal of all countries and is also one of the goals of the UN 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development. As the world's largest developing country, China upholds the concept of a community with a shared future for mankind, firmly practices multilateralism, proposes the Global Development Initiative (GDI) and the Global Security Initiative (GSI), deepens pragmatic cooperation, actively participates in global environmental and climate governance, and promotes global sustainable development. Purpose: Through exchanges and discussions in the seminar, we will introduce China's green development experiences to the seminar officials from other countries and explore how to further promote cooperation in green development among developing countries under new circumstances. In the meantime, the seminar serves as a platform to facilitate exchange and cooperation among developing countries and promote the construction of a community with a shared future for mankind. Content: The topics of the seminar will mainly cover an overview of China's national conditions, China's reform and opening up and the road to Chinese modernization, Chinese leaders' philosophy of governance, the GDI and the community with a shared future for mankind, as well as top-level plans of China's green development: policies and practices, China's low-carbon development strategies and practices, China's green transportation system, China's experience in green development of modern agriculture, sustainable urban development and green buildings, China's green trade policy, China's climate policy and sustainable development, and international cooperation on green development. Methods: Invite Chinese experts in green development policies and practices and related fields to give lectures on various topics; organize seminars and exchanges between participants and experts, and among participants; organize trainees to learn about green economy in Beijing and other cities and pay field-visit to relevant organizations and enterprises etc. (The above is the preliminary schedule, which may be adjusted according to the actual situation, and the final version will be provided upon arrival in China.)
